

HERDSMANSHIP EXHIBIT SPONSORED BY FARM BUREAU

Thanks to Farms Bureau who is sponsoring an award for the most outstanding Herdsmanship Exhibit.

There will be an award presented to the top winner from this competition and the winner will get first pick for next years stalls.

FACTORS TO BE CONSIDERED IN JUDGING THE EXHIBIT

- Overall eye appeal
- Cleanliness of alley and stalls
- Cards with exhibitors name
- Attendants on duty
- Courtesy shown to fairgoers
- Overall herdsmanship, etc.

MINIMUM EXHIBIT STANDARDS

1. Banner is required identifying the name of organization.
2. Signs identifying individual members of group, their animals and weight
3. Someone present at all times during the day Friday, July 11, 2008

GENERAL RULES

- Exhibit groups consist of your 4-H Club or FFA Organization within the county
- Stall space will be assigned for groups, by lottery
- The Howard County Fair Livestock Committee will be in charge of the lottery.
- Clubs and Organizations are asked to have their area ready by 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, July 10 for public inspection
- The exhibits can be judged at any time after 4:00 p.m. Thursday until clean-up of the barns and load-out Friday night, July 11.
- Area will be judged multiple times at unannounced times by 3rd party appointed judges.
- Rational- by putting all exhibitors together the Livestock Committee believes complaints and problems will be reduced.
